

FinTel Communications is committed to maintaining robust privacy protections for its users. Our Privacy Policy ("Privacy Policy") is designed to help you understand how we collect, use and safeguard the information you provide to us and to assist you in making informed decisions when using our website ("Site").

We collect "Non-Personal Information" and "Personal Information". Non-Personal Information includes information that cannot be used to personally identify you, such as anonymous usage data, general demographic information we may collect, referring/exit pages and URLs, platform types, preferences you submit and preferences that are generated based on the data you submit and number of clicks. Personal Information includes your email and other contact information that you voluntarily submit to us through our Site.

We track Non-Personal Information using cookies, or small text files which include an anonymous unique identifier. Cookies are sent to a user's browser from our servers and are stored on the user's computer hard drive. Sending a cookie to a user's browser enables us to collect Non-Personal Information about that user and keep a record of the user's preferences when utilizing our services, both on an individual and aggregate basis. It also helps us improve and customize the user experience on our Site.

We only use the Personal Information that you provide us to provide support services for current customers, for sales efforts for products of business, and to communicate with you in responding to your contact requests. We do not sell, trade, rent or otherwise share for marketing purposes your Personal Information with third parties. We will keep your Personal Information while we are providing services to you. Thereafter, we will keep your Personal Information for as long as is necessary:

- To respond to any questions, complaints or claims made by you or on your behalf.
- To show that we treated you fairly; or
- To keep records required by law.

We will not retain your Personal Information for longer than necessary for the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy. Please note that different retention periods apply for different types of Personal Information. Once it is no longer necessary to retain your personal information, we will delete or anonymize it.

We implement commercially reasonable security measures designed to protect your information from unauthorized access. We further protect your information from potential security breaches by implementing certain technological security measures including encryption, firewalls and secure socket layer technology. However, these measures do not guarantee that your information will not be accessed, disclosed, altered or destroyed by unauthorized persons who breach such firewalls and secure server software. By providing your Personal Information to us, you acknowledge that you understand and agree to assume these risks.

Our services are restricted to users who are 18 years of age or older. We do not permit users under the age of 18 (a "Child") on our Site and we do not knowingly collect Personal Information from a Child. If we discover that we have received Personal Information from a Child, then we immediately delete such information. Nonetheless, if you are a parent or guardian of a Child and you become aware that your Child has provided us with Personal Information without your consent, you should contact us through our Site's Contact page. Parents and guardians always have the right to inspect any information that we may have inadvertently collected from their Child and have the right to have us edit or delete it.
